19. At all times mentioned in this Complaint, Defendant was a “debt collector” as that term is defined by the FDCPA.
20. At all times mentioned herein, Defendant was attempting to collect on an alleged “consumer debt” against Plaintiff, as that term is defined by the FDCPA.
21. The alleged consumer debt that Defendant was trying to collect from Plaintiff was for Plaintiff’s personal, household and family purposes.
22. The alleged consumer debt that Defendant was trying to collect from Plaintiff was for a furniture for Plaintiff’s home and Plaintiff’s family at the above captioned address.
23. Prior to the commencement of this action Defendant began servicing the account for collection purposes.
24. On or about October 6, 2016, Defendant sent Plaintiff a letter, a copy of which is attached in the exhibits to this complaint.
25. The letter indicated that there was no interest associated with the account.
26. On or about October 14, 2016, and then again on or about October 19, 2016, Plaintiff’s attorney, Vicki Piontek, and Defendant’s agent, representative or employee engaged in a telephone conversation.

27. During said telephone conversations on or about October 14, 2016, and then again on or about October 19, 2016, Defendant's agent(s), representative(s) or employee(s) stated that the account for the alleged debt that Plaintiff was attempting to collect from Plaintiff would continue to be reported to a credit reporting agency(ies) for 7 years from the date that Defendant first started reporting the account to the credit reporting agency(ies), even though the account was approximately two years delinquent when Defendant first began to report it to the consumer reporting agencies.

36. Defendant(s) violated 15 USC 1692(f) by engaging in illegal and unconscionable debt collection practices.

37. Plaintiff's statements were not false or misleading, and Defendant did intend to report the derogatory information about the consumer accounts on Plaintiff's consumer report for 7 years from the date that Defendant(s) first began to report the accounts, then Defendant would have been engaged in illegal and unconscionable collection activity in violation of 15 USC 1692f et. seq.

LIABILITY AND DAMAGES

38. All previous paragraphs of this complaint are incorporated by reference and made a part of this complaint.
39. Plaintiff reserves the right to pierce the corporate veil under the doctrine of under-capitalization.
40. Plaintiff reserves the right to pierce the corporate veil under the doctrine of alter ego.
41. Any mistake made by Defendant(s) would have included a mistake of law.
42. Any mistake made by Defendant(s) would not have been a reasonable or bona fide mistake.
43. Plaintiff's actual damages are $1.00 more or less, including but not limited to postage, phone calls, fax, etc. to her attorney to stop the unlawful collection activity.
44. It is believed and averred that Plaintiff is entitled to $1,000.00 statutory damages under the FDCPA 15 USC 1692k, or other amount approved by this Honorable Court.
45. Plaintiff suffered some emotional distress, confusion and anger as a result of Defendant's unlawful collection activity, with a Dollar value to be determined by this Honorable Court or other Court of competent jurisdiction.
46. For purposes of a default judgment, Plaintiff believes and avers that such distress has a Dollar value of no less than $5,000.00.

STANDING UNDER ARTICLE 3 OF THE U.S. CONSTITUTION

47. The previous paragraphs of this Complaint are incorporated by reference and made a part of this Complaint.
48. A plaintiff invoking federal jurisdiction under Article III of the U.S. Constitution bears the burden of (1) an injury in fact, (2) fairly traceable to the challenged conduct of the defendant, and (3) likely to be redressed by a favorable judicial decision. See Spokeo v. Robbins U.S. Supreme Court Opinion of the Honorable Justice Samuel Alito, 13-1119 (2016), quoting Lujan v. Defenders of Wildlife, 504 U. S. 555 (1992).
49. The injury-in-fact requirement requires a plaintiff to show that he or she suffered “an invasion of a legally protected interest” that is “particularized” and “concrete.”
50. The “particularization” requirement means that an injury must i.e., the requirement that an injury must “affect the plaintiff in a personal and individual way;” See Spokeo v. Robbins U.S. Supreme Court opinion of the Honorable Justice Samuel Alito, 13-1119 (2016), quoting Lujan v. Defenders of Wildlife, 504 U. S. 555 (1992). Particularization also means that the Plaintiff must have personally has suffered some actual or threatened injury; See Spokeo v. Robbins U.S. Supreme Court Opinion of the Honorable Justice Samuel Alito, 13-1119 (2016), quoting United States v. Richardson, 418 U. S. 166, 177 (1974).
51. “Concreteness” is quite different from particularization. Particularization is necessary to establish injury in fact, but it is not sufficient. An injury in fact must also be “concrete.” and requires an injury to be “de facto,” that is, to actually exist. The injury must be “real,” and “not abstract.” See Spokeo v. Robbins U.S. Supreme Court opinion of the Honorable Justice Samuel Alito, 13-1119 (2016).

52. A “concrete” injury need not be a measurable or “tangible” injury. “Concrete” is not, however, necessarily synonymous with “tangible.” Although tangible injuries are perhaps easier to recognize, intangible injuries can nevertheless be concrete. See Spokeo v. Robbins U.S. Supreme Court opinion of the Honorable Justice Samuel Alito, 13-1119 (2016), and quoting Pleasant Grove City v. Summum, 555 U. S. 460 (2009). Also see Spokeo v. Robbins U.S. Supreme Court concurring Opinion of the Honorable Justice Clarence Thomas, 13-1119 (2016).
53. Congress can create new private causes of action to vindicate private or public rights, and can authorize private plaintiffs to sue based simply on the violation of those private rights. A Plaintiff seeking to vindicate a statutorily created private right need not allege actual harm beyond the invasion of that private right; see Spokeo v. Robbins, 13-1119 (2016), Opinion of the Honorable Justice Clarence Thomas quoting Warth v. Seldin, 422 U. S. 490, 500 (1975) and also quoting Havens Realty Corp. v. Coleman, 455 U. S. 363, 373–374 (1982).
54. Plaintiff suffered an actual concrete injury when Defendant engaged in the above referenced prohibited unlawful collection activity in violation of 15 USC 1692 et. seq.
55. Plaintiff and Plaintiff’s attorney were confused and misled about the statements in the aforementioned telephone conversation.
56. Plaintiff suffered a concrete harm because Plaintiff suffered emotional distress as a result of the statements contained in the aforementioned conversation.
57. Plaintiff suffered a concrete harm because Plaintiff now lives in fear that Defendant will re-age te account in such a way that it remains on Plaintiffs consumer report / consumer file for a longer period of time than the law allows.

58. A key factor that the Court should apply in determining Defendant's actions to be a "concrete harm" is the willful nature of Defendant's conduct. Defendant's flagrant flaunting of the law of 15 USC 1692 et. seq. was willful and dangerous thus manifesting a "concrete harm" to not only the Plaintiff but other consumers deprived of statutory conferred rights, including the right to be free from false statements and improper threats to collect debts by making one or more false statements.
